

William Wang, Bass

William has been a student at the Victoria Conservatory of Music since 2012. He is studying voice with Cathy Lewis and piano with Robert Holliston. He is interested in variety of genres, including classical, country and popular music. He is a graduate from the Diploma in Classical Music and the Diploma in Music Performance programs. William now is working on becoming a classical musician and pop song writer.

William has performed with various organizations, including VCM Opera Studio, Victoria and BC Performing Arts Festival and the chorus of Pacific Opera Victoria.